DEATH OF MOTT-SMITH.

A Prominent Citizen Passes Away.

After a long illness J. Mott-Smith passed away this morning at his residence on Nuuanu street. The deceased had in former years played an important role in the history of Hawaii and he was always highly respected by the kings with whom he worked and by the people.

He was born in the United States and arrived here about 1856, when he opened an office as dentist on the corner of Hotel and Fort streets. He was an excellent dentist and for many years the leading one in his business.

He very soon became prominent in officialdom, and served Kamehameha V. as Minister of Finance from 1869-1872. During Kalakaua's regime he was Minister of Interior in 1876. On several occasions he was sent to Washington as special envoy of the Hawaiian Government and his affable manner and exquisite tact made him very popular in the capital of the States.

Mott-Smith was one of the principal stockholders in two of the largest plantations on Hawaii and was consequently possessed with much of the goods of this world. He was 71 years of age. He married Miss Paty, a niece of the late Captain Paty, who survives him with four daughters and two sons. The community extends its sincerest sympathy to the family in its bereavement.

The funeral will take place tomorrow from St. Andrew's Cathedral at 2:30 p. m. and be conducted by Mr. Ed. A. Williams.

THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

Senator Brown moved to allow the clerk 35 days to write up the records or have them typewritten in the Military Commission style—the latter at his own expense. Agreed to. Minister W. O. Smith brought back a joint resolution from the President. It was the one endorsing annexation. The Executive didn't like the English wording. The idea was all right. The particular part objected to was the political idea which is so important a part of the popular following of the republic. He presented engrossed copies of a substitute motion. This was adopted on Senator Brown's motion and the old one withdrawn. The two bills to authorize purchase of Bishop residence on Emma street for Board of Education passed their third reading. Senators Brown, McCandless and Wright alone voting no on both. Bills exempting Libraries from taxation, establishing a National Guard and granting $3000 extra for Legislative expenses were reported in the President's hands. Minister Hatch announced it was impossible to present the cable contract this morning as it was not yet signed owing to a small matter of detail, but he thought it would be all ready Monday. Adjourned.

Our Band.

The band boys have been heard from. They write on most elaborate stationery on which appears a well taken photograph of the members of the Royal Hawaiian National Band. The boys were in Chicago when last heard from, and were to leave for New York where they have several advance engagements. The band is doing very well and the boys seem satisfied. James Aylett, who is their advance agent, emphatically denies the reports sent to Honolulu about the boys "whooping it up" and drinking. He says that they are extremely well behaved and economical. The band is managed by Ch. Woodford, manager, J. Liborio, musical director, John Wilson, secretary, and R. W. Aylett, treasurer. The boys at the cyclorama in Boston have also been heard from and they state that they are all right.

Leilani Dance.

The Leilani boat club has arranged to give a dance at Independence Hall on Wednesday. The last dance given by the club eclipsed everything similar previously given here and the ladies of Honolulu have shown their willingness to assist the club in making the coming entertainment equally successful. The object of the dance is to raise the necessary funds to defray the expenses connected with the coming regatta. David Kawanakoa, Geo. Smithies and Ed. Styles are the committee of arrangements. Tickets can be obtained from members at the Golden Rule Bazaar, at Thrum's bookstore and the Hawaiian Hotel office. Special busses and cars will run during the evening. The dance of the Leilani club has no connection with the dance to be given on Friday by the Lei Ilima club in honor of C. F. Peterson who shortly will leave for the States.

A Word to the Wise

While people are complaining of dull times and no money, we are busy showing every CASH Customer who comes into our establishment, that the purchasing power of his dollar is greater with us than elsewhere. We believe that every purchaser who buys a good article cheap, gets into a good humor with himself, and by natural process, with his neighbors also; which goes a long way to relieve the oppressive feelings of dull times. To feel pleased with ourselves and one another no better opportunity offers than to trade at the Grocery Store of
